Overview of Weekend

Friday
Check-in begins at 4:30 p.m. Dinner is served at 6:30, followed by a welcome/orientation and opening talk. The evening concludes with a celebration of the Eucharist.

Saturday
The morning bell begins our day at 7:00, after which we gather for prayer, then breakfast at 8:00 a.m. Throughout the day there are opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, spiritual direction, and the celebration of the Eucharist, as well as time for personal prayer, rest and reflection.

Conferences focusing on this year’s theme, "Who do YOU say I am?" are offered by the ministry team throughout the day. The day concludes with dinner and common prayer.

Sunday
Once again rising at 7:00 a.m., we then share prayer, breakfast and a "closing conversation." Guests are invited to depart following the morning’s celebration of the Eucharist, which concludes around noon.

"Abandon yourself to God, rest in God, and leave the care of everything to Him."
St. Paul of the Cross

A retreat is a precious opportunity to renew faith, to experience the loving presence of God and to seek the wisdom so necessary for good daily living.

Contact us to register today!

St. Paul of the Cross Passionist Retreat Center
23333 Schoolcraft
Detroit, MI 48223
313.535.9563
stpaulretreat.org
"Who do you say I AM?"

Matthew 16:15

Jesus posed that very question to Peter and the disciples. First, “Who do others say I am?” but then the real question: “Who do YOU say I am?”

Jesus asks that same question of each of us. He doesn’t want to know what Father so-and-so says, or who the Church says Jesus is. He doesn’t want to know how your mother or grandmother would answer. He wants to know how you would answer.

Have you ever really taken the time to hear Jesus ask you that question? What would your response be? How would you answer that question and what does your answer mean for the way you live your life?

Take a risk. Hear Jesus ask the question... dare to respond from the depths of your being... and meet Jesus again, as if for the first time!